MRV RESERVATION POLICY FOR ADMISSIONS

RESERVATION POLICY FOR ADMISSIONS

1. Preamble

Malla Reddy Vishwavidyapeeth (Deemed to be University), sponsored by Chandramma Educational Society, is committed to promoting equitable access to higher education, social inclusion, equal opportunity and non-discrimination.

This Policy establishes the institutional framework for implementing reservation in admissions to the programmes offered by the University, its constituent colleges and Schools of Eminence, wherever reservation is applicable under the relevant Government orders, statutory regulations and competent-authority counselling procedures.

The University shall implement reservation transparently and consistently, while respecting the distinct regulatory requirements applicable to medical, dental, pharmacy, nursing, engineering, technology, management and other academic programmes.

2. Objectives

The objectives of this Policy are to:

1. Ensure that reservation is implemented in accordance with applicable laws, Government Orders and statutory regulations.
2. Promote equitable access to higher education for eligible candidates belonging to constitutionally and legally recognised reserved categories.
3. Establish a transparent procedure for identifying eligible candidates and verifying supporting certificates.
4. Ensure that reservation is applied only to programmes and seats for which it is legally applicable.
5. Provide for applicable horizontal reservations, including those for Persons with Benchmark Disabilities (PwBD), women and other categories, wherever prescribed.

6. Establish accountability for the implementation, monitoring and periodic review of reservation provisions.

3. Scope and Applicability

This Policy applies to admissions to undergraduate, postgraduate, super-speciality, integrated, doctoral and fellowship programmes offered by MRV, subject to the specific reservation framework applicable to each programme.

The Policy shall be implemented in accordance with the following distinctions:

3.1 Programmes following Government of Telangana norms

Reservation shall be implemented in the Pharmacy programmes of Malla Reddy Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences (MRIPS), and in other programmes specifically notified by the University as following Government of Telangana reservation norms, subject to the applicable Government Orders and statutory requirements.

3.2 Medical and dental programmes

For MBBS, BDS, MD/MS, MDS and DM programmes filled through Medical Counselling Committee (MCC) or other competent-authority counselling, reservation and category-based seat allocation shall follow the applicable counselling scheme, Government of India provisions and regulations of the National Medical Commission (NMC), National Dental Commission or other competent statutory authority, as applicable.

3.3 Other programmes

For programmes offered by Malla Reddy College of Nursing, Malla Reddy Technical Campus and the Various Schools of Eminence, the applicability of reservation shall be determined with reference to the University's legal status, applicable UGC regulations, relevant Government directions, programme-specific statutory requirements and any applicable seat-allocation conditions.

Hyderabad
(Deemed to be University)

The Telangana reservation matrix set out in this Policy shall not automatically be extended to every programme unless its applicability has been confirmed by the competent authority.

4. Categories of Reservation

Reservation may be provided under the following categories, as applicable to the programme and seat type:

a. Scheduled Castes (SC), including applicable sub-categorisation under prevailing law.

b. Scheduled Tribes (ST).

c. Backward Classes (BC), including BC-A, BC-B, BC-C, BC-D and BC-E, wherever applicable under Telangana Government norms.

d. Economically Weaker Sections (EWS), subject to applicable eligibility conditions.

e. Persons with Benchmark Disabilities (PwBD), in accordance with the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act, 2016, and the regulations applicable to the programme.

f. Other horizontal or special reservation categories prescribed by the competent Government or statutory authority.

The availability, percentage, eligibility conditions and method of implementation of each category shall be determined by the rules applicable to the relevant programme and seats.

5. Reservation Matrix for Programmes Following Government of Telangana Norms

Subject to confirmation against the latest applicable Government Orders, the following matrix is reproduced from Annexure III of the MRV Admission Policy 2026–27.

| Category | Percentage of seats |
|---|---|
| Open Category (OC) | 36% |
| Backward Classes (BC) | 29% |

|---|---|
| Scheduled Castes (SC) | 15% |
| Scheduled Tribes (ST) | 10% |
| Economically Weaker Sections (EWS) | 10% |
| Total | 100% |

The Backward Classes allocation is indicated as follows:

| BC Category | Percentage |
|---|---|
| BC-A | 7% |
| BC-B | 10% |
| BC-C | 1% |
| BC-D | 7% |
| BC-E | 4% |
| Total BC reservation | 29% |

Implementation conditions:

1. The above matrix shall be used only for programmes and seats to which the relevant Telangana reservation norms apply.
2. The SC allocation, including sub-categorisation, shall be implemented in accordance with the applicable Telangana legislation, Government Orders and directions in force at the time of admission.
3. Horizontal reservation, including reservation for PwBD, women and other eligible categories, shall be applied as prescribed by the competent authority.
4. The University shall verify the current category-wise percentages and any related conditions before approving the final matrix for an admission cycle.
5. The competent authority may approve a revised matrix or programme-specific reservation schedule where required by law.

6. Reservation in NEET-Based Medical and Dental Admissions

Admissions to MBBS, BDS, MD/MS, MDS and DM programmes shall be conducted through the applicable NEET examination and its respective counselling process MCC.

1. Candidates must satisfy the eligibility requirements prescribed by the relevant statutory authority and qualify in the applicable NEET examination.
2. Reservation, category-based eligibility, seat allocation, sub-category benefits and the treatment of vacant seats shall be governed by the applicable MCC or competent-authority counselling scheme and prevailing statutory regulations.
3. The University and its constituent colleges shall not independently alter the reservation percentages or seat-allocation rules prescribed by the competent counselling authority.
4. Candidates claiming reservation benefits shall submit the certificates and supporting documents required under the applicable counselling procedure.
5. Admissions shall be completed strictly in accordance with the allotment issued by the competent authority and within the prescribed deadlines.

7. Horizontal Reservation and Disability Support

Horizontal reservation shall be implemented wherever prescribed by the applicable law, Government Order, statutory authority or counselling scheme.

For candidates claiming reservation as Persons with Benchmark Disabilities:

1. The candidate shall satisfy the applicable definition, disability threshold, eligibility criteria and documentation requirements.
2. A valid disability or benchmark-disability certificate shall be produced from the competent medical or certifying authority, as required.
3. Medical fitness, functional requirements and programme-specific eligibility shall be assessed in accordance with the applicable statutory regulations.
4. The University shall provide reasonable accommodation and accessibility support in accordance with applicable law, subject to the requirements of the programme and statutory authority.

MALLA REDDY VISHWAVIDYAPEETH (Deemed to be University) Suraram Hyderabad

Horizontal reservation shall be applied in the manner prescribed by the competent authority and shall not be interpreted as an additional vertical reservation unless the applicable rules expressly provide otherwise.

8. Eligibility and Supporting Documents

Candidates seeking reservation benefits shall submit the prescribed documents during the admission or counselling process, as applicable.

These may include:

- Valid caste/community certificate for SC, ST or BC claims.
- EWS certificate in the prescribed format and within the applicable validity period.
- Disability or benchmark-disability certificate for PwBD claims.
- Other certificates or declarations required under the relevant Government Order, counselling scheme or statutory regulation.

The University may verify documents through the issuing authority or any legally authorised verification mechanism.

A certificate issued by an authority that is not competent under the applicable rules, or a certificate that does not satisfy the prescribed conditions, may not be accepted for the claimed reservation benefit.

Candidates shall be responsible for providing accurate information and authentic supporting documents.

9. Verification and Scrutiny

The Central Admission Committee, Admissions Department and relevant School/College-level Admission Sub-Committees shall ensure that reservation claims are examined in accordance with this Policy and the applicable programme-specific rules.

MALLA REDDY VISHWAVIDYAPEETH
Suraram
Hyderabad
(Deemed to be University)

The verification process shall include:

1. Scrutiny of the category claimed in the application.
2. Verification of certificates and their validity.
3. Confirmation of eligibility under the applicable reservation rules.
4. Compliance with counselling, merit-list and seat-allocation procedures.
5. Maintenance of records relating to reservation claims, verification and admission decisions.

Where a claim is doubtful, incomplete or inconsistent, the University may seek clarification or additional documents from the candidate or the issuing authority, subject to applicable admission deadlines and rules.

10. Merit, Counselling and Seat Allocation

Reservation shall be implemented together with the prescribed academic eligibility, entrance examination, merit-ranking and counselling requirements.

1. Reservation does not exempt a candidate from the minimum eligibility criteria, qualifying examination or entrance examination requirements prescribed for the programme.
2. Candidates shall be considered under the relevant category in accordance with the applicable merit and seat-allocation rules.
3. Seats filled through competent-authority counselling shall be allocated only through that counselling process.
4. The treatment of unfilled reserved seats, conversion between categories and any carry-forward or reallocation shall follow the applicable Government Order, statutory regulation or counselling scheme.
5. The University shall not independently convert or reallocate reserved seats contrary to the applicable rules.

11. False Claims and Cancellation of Admission

If a candidate is found to have submitted a forged, false, invalid or misleading certificate, or to have suppressed material information to obtain a reservation benefit, the University may initiate action in accordance with applicable law and University regulations.

Depending on the circumstances and due process requirements, such action may include rejection of the reservation claim, cancellation of admission where legally permissible, reporting to the competent authority and other action prescribed by law.

No adverse action shall be taken without following the applicable procedure and providing the candidate an opportunity to respond wherever required.

12. Grievance Redressal

A candidate who has a grievance relating to the application of reservation, category verification or admission procedure may submit a written representation to the Admissions Department through the notified official channel.

The grievance shall be examined by the competent authority or committee in accordance with the applicable rules and admission schedule.

Where the grievance falls within the jurisdiction of a statutory counselling authority, regulator or other competent authority, the candidate may be directed to the appropriate forum.

This procedure shall be without prejudice to any statutory right or remedy available to the candidate.

13. Roles and Responsibilities

MALLA REDDY VISHWAVIDYAPEETH (Deemed to be University) Suraram Hyderabad

13.1 Central Admission Committee

The Central Admission Committee shall oversee the implementation of this Policy, ensure consistency across programmes and recommend necessary changes to the competent authority.

13.2 Admissions Department

The Admissions Department shall communicate applicable reservation provisions, receive documents, coordinate verification and maintain admission records.

13.3 School/College-level Admission Sub-Committees

The relevant sub-committees shall scrutinise applications and supporting documents, apply the approved reservation framework and report issues requiring clarification or decision.

13.4 Registrar and Competent Authority

The Registrar and other competent authorities shall ensure that the Policy and programme-specific reservation matrices are reviewed and updated in accordance with applicable regulations and Government Orders.

14. Records and Reporting

The University shall maintain appropriate records of:

- Programme-wise sanctioned intake and applicable seat matrix.
- Category-wise applications, where required.
- Certificates submitted and verification outcomes.
- Category-wise admissions and allotment records.
- Decisions on disputed or ineligible claims.
- Reports required by the competent Government, counselling authority or statutory regulator.

MALLA REDDY VISHWAVIDYAPEETH
Suraram
Hyderabad
(Deemed to be University)

Records shall be retained in accordance with applicable law, regulatory directions and the University's record-management requirements.

15. Policy Review and Amendment

This Policy shall be reviewed periodically and whenever amendments are issued by the Government of India, Government of Telangana, UGC, relevant statutory regulatory authorities or competent counselling authorities.

The University may revise the programme-wise reservation matrix through approval of the competent authority where permitted by the applicable framework. No revision shall override a statutory requirement or a binding Government or court direction.

In case of any inconsistency between this Policy and an applicable law, Government Order, statutory regulation or binding direction of a competent authority, the latter shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

16. Approval and Implementation

This Policy shall come into force from the date of approval by the competent authority of Malla Reddy Vishwavidyapeeth.

The Admissions Department, constituent colleges and Schools of Eminence shall implement the Policy in accordance with their respective responsibilities.
